

Chants:

De l'argent pour l'école
Pas de sang pour du pétrole

De l'argent pour manger,
Pas de guerre pour affamer

De l'argent pour un monde meilleur,
Pas de carnage destructeur

Non à la guerre; Oui à la paix
No to war; Yes to peace

1, 2, 3, 4: We Don't Want Your Racist War
5, 6, 7, 8: Bush and Blair you're full of hate

A bas à bas la guerre. On n'va pas se taire
Blair, Chrétien et cie. Arrêtez la "busherie"

President Bush You Can't Hide
We charge you with Genocide

No blood for oil!

So so so, solidarité, Avec les peuples du monde entier

À Jean Chrétien, nous disons,
La guerre n'est pas une option

Pas de sanctions, pas de guerre, pas de folies meurtrières

Proposer une date butoir, C'est cautionner un abattoir

Bush et Blair, Criminels de guerre

Five Reasons We Are Marching

We are told the war is over, so why do we march?

1) If we save one life it will be worth it

If marching saves one life, stops one bomb or stops one child getting their arms blown off whilst they sleep, then it is worth it.

2) We are demonstrating against not just this war but the next one

We need to march to show we will not tolerate war without end. Bush and Rumsfeld have made it clear that after Iraq lies Iran, Syria, North Korea, Cuba, in fact anywhere that doesn't agree with the US or has resources they want.

3) We cannot let Blair and Bush get away with it

If the government thinks it can get away with lying to justify a war this time, it will do it again. Marching will show Bush and Blair that we haven't gone away and we will not accept their lies. This war was about weapons of mass destruction - where are they? The US has named two of its bases 'Forward Base Exxon' and 'Forward Base Shell', yet the government told us the war was not about oil.

4) The world is watching

The impact of the global day of protest against war on February 15 was to show that this war is not between christian and muslim, but between the Bush/Blair 'axis of evil' and world opinion.

5) Not in my name

By marching we show that the thousands killed, the destruction, the imposition of a US government is not being done in my name.
